Bar Admission Checklist

Find details on exam dates, registration deadlines, special accommodations, and current fees.

The Texas bar admissions process is lengthy and intricate, but we're here to guide you. There are many steps involved and as the date of the exam nears, filing fees increase. Start at least a year (or more, if you can) in advance of the bar exam date. Here's what you need to know and do for Texas Bar admission:

☐ Create an ATLAS Account | For All Filings

ATLAS Email: ATLAS Password:

You may have already created your ATLAS Account during your 1L year when you completed your Declaration of Intent to Study Law. You'll need to access your online ATLAS Account to apply for the Texas Bar Exam or to submit any other application.

Create or access your ATLAS Account here: ble.texas.gov/registration

☐ Create an NCBE Account | Before Bar Exam Application

My NCBE Number

All law students are required to create an NCBE Account that comes with a unique NCBE Number for identification purposes. You will need this number to be able to take the MPRE (see below) and the MBE (Multistate Bar Exam), which are developed by the NCBE (National Conference of Bar Examiners). The MBE is administered on day two of the Uniform Bar Exam.

Most students create an NCBE account when registering for the MPRE. Register with the NCBE at: <https://auth.ncbex.org/account/create>.

☐ Take the MPRE | Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam

We recommend taking the MPRE any time during 2L year or as early in your 3L year as possible. A scaled score of 85 on the MPRE is required for admission to the Texas bar. Scores are scaled and range from 50 to 150. A raw score of approximately 32 correct out of 50 usually converts to a scaled score of 85. Your passing MPRE score report must be submitted to the Texas Board of Law Examiners (TBLE) through the NCBE website.

The MPRE is a two-hour, 60-question, multiple-choice exam developed by the NCBE and administered in the spring, summer, and fall. When registering for the MPRE, students can select one of two dates offered at a time on a first come, first served basis. Scan the QR code on the front page for exam dates, accommodation and exam registration deadlines, and current fees.

□ Submit Character + Fitness Information | Start Early, Expect a Thorough Check

Once your Declaration of Intention to Study Law is filed, you can submit your bar exam Character and Fitness information. TBLE investigates all applicants on behalf of the Supreme Court of Texas.

You will be asked to disclose details about your academic, work and financial history, as well as any criminal record and civil proceedings. Candor is key. You will also need to include references, your final law school transcripts, driving record, birth certificate, passport and fingerprints.

□ Get Results, Take New Lawyer Oath | After Bar Exam

Typically, the TBLE releases results in April for the February bar exam and in October for the July bar exam.

The State Bar of Texas requires registration of all new state attorneys (for a fee). When you receive your new license, it is required that you take the oath.

For details, go to: www.texasbar.com/newattorney

□ Take the Texas Law Component | Required After Passing

All Texas applicants who pass the bar must take the Texas Law Component. This is satisfied by completing the Texas Law Course (TLC), which is a series of videos and “hurdle” questions. The TLC is done online and requires approximately 12 hours of work. Applicants may complete the TLC up to one year before taking a bar exam and up to two years after passing a bar exam in Texas.

The Texas Law Course is available through the State Bar of Texas–TexasBarCLE. There is no cost for the course, but you’ll need to register as a user of TexasBarCLE before you can register for the Texas Law Course. Go to: texasbarcle.com/TBLE

In addition, please note that by order of the Supreme Court of Texas, all newly licensed attorneys must complete the Justice James A. Baker Guide to Ethics and Professionalism in Texas no later than 12 months after being licensed. For more information, contact the Texas Center for Legal Ethics.
